A one man show focusing on the life of the tentmaker; aka Paul. Utilising a storytelling style, Dai Woolridge communicates the journey of a man who changed the face of the early church; whose New Testament letters have been a major part of us understanding how we run the race. From coat rail, reading in Braille, to jail – this is Paul's journey, in a way you haven't seen it before.'

Who should come and see it? - Young & old, 'church goers' & 'never been to church goers'.

The show is aimed at secondary school to Senior Citizens. Those familiar with the epistles and Paul's story in Acts will engage with some of the content on a different level to those who don't. On the one level; it is an entertaining one man show, on the other it presents the story of Paul in a new light and with a fresh perspective
